

J. Blake Mayes

Criminal Defense Attorney Phoenix

An Arizona native who graduated from Arizona State University, cum laude, in 2000 and The University of Arizona College of Law, cum laude, in 2005. While attending law school, Mr. Mayes clerked for The Honorable Earl Carroll in the United States District Court for the District of Arizona and was an Editor for The Arizona Law Review.

Mr. Mayes is committed to superior client communication recognizing that each client has unique needs and motivations as well as the most intimate knowledge of that client's case.

Mr. Mayes is active in the Maricopa County Bar Association and participates in a number of volunteer activities including the provision of pro bono legal services through various programs and serving as a mentor with Phoenix Youth-At-Risk.

Mr. Mayes is admitted to practice in all Courts in the State of Arizona as well as the Ninth Circuit. He has experience arguing cases in the Arizona Court of Appeals, the Maricopa County Superior Courts, the Pima County Superior Courts, the Coconino County Superior Courts, the Yavapai County Superior Courts, the United States District Court for the District of Arizona, as well as various Justice Courts and City/Municipal Courts throughout the State of Arizona.