

David V. Telles

Criminal Defense Attorney Phoenix

Graduated from Arizona State University, cum laude, in 2001 and from The University of Arizona College of Law in 2005. While attending law school, Mr. Telles clerked for The Honorable Bernardo P. Velasco in the United States District Court for the District of Arizona and also worked for the Cochise, Pima, and Maricopa County Attorney's offices. Before forming MayesTelles PLLC with J. Blake Mayes, Mr. Telles was a prosecutor with the Maricopa County Attorney's Office where he prosecuted thousands of misdemeanor and felony criminal cases.

Mr. Telles has extensive jury and bench trial experience in both felony and misdemeanor cases. Coupled with a long background in law enforcement, Mr. Telles has firsthand knowledge of how criminal matters proceed through to final disposition. Mr. Telles is admitted to practice in all Courts in the State of Arizona as well as in the United States District Court for the District of Arizona.

Mr. Telles is an Air Force veteran who served as an explosive/narcotics dog handler. As a dog handler, Mr. Telles served as an anti-terrorist unit in the Middle East, worked for the United States Secret Service, and was a member of a narcotics interdiction task force for the Drug Enforcement Administration.

Mr. Telles is committed to the concept of individual rights and accountability of parties. As a former prosecutor with the Maricopa County Attorney's Office, Mr. Telles brings a unique level of experience and understanding to criminal cases and is an ideal attorney to represent individuals involved in criminal matters.
